March Programming for the Teen Zone

Tuesday, March 3 Wild Wonder: Teen Nature Journaling 3-5 p.m.
Join us for a free nature writing and journaling program brought to you by the Museum of American Bird Art at Mass Audubon. We’ll start nature journaling and explore sketching, poetry, prose, and more. We will meet in the Art Gallery. Participants ages 14 to 18 are welcome. All supplies will be provided. To register, email Dan Boudreau at dboudreaus@massaudubon.org. There will be snacks!

Thursdays: March 5, 12, 19, and 26 Drop-In Crafting and Board Games 2:30-4:30 p.m.
Get creative with a variety of art and craft supplies, or challenge your friends to a game in the Teen Zone. Choose from a variety of board games, or bring in one of your own to share.

Mondays: March 23 and 30 Brockton Got Talent Auditions 3-4:30 p.m.
Ready to wow us with your singing or rapping? Come audition for Brockton Got Talent. There will be auditions on March 23 and 30 in the Lingos Auditorium on the bottom floor of the Main Library. Finalists will be chosen and the lucky few will have a chance to compete for an amazing prize package. We can’t wait to see what you’ve got! Open to teens ages 14 to 19.

Monday, March 30 Teen Advisory Board 3-4:30 p.m.
Help plan and promote teen programs, choose library materials, and earn volunteer hours while you eat PIZZA and meet other Brockton teens.
